DISTRICT COURT.

Greenhalgh and the Two Jennings Found Guilty

OF SALTING THE MINE.

Vickers Refused the Waters and Paid Twenty Dollars for so Do—Other Cases Tried and Orders Made—New Cases—Notes, Etc.

The whole time of the First District court yesterday afternoon was occupied with the case against Peter Greenhalgh, Nephi Jennings, Alex Jennings and Thomas Goff accused of having obtained money from Amos Robinson of Fillmore upon false pretenses, by selling him a one-fourth interest in a certain mine or prospect in the Deseret district for $3,000. It is alleged in the indictment that these defendants represented to Mr. Robinson that certain gold bearing quartz which assayed upwards of $50,000.00 to the ton came from the mine, when in fact it did not; that the mine was and is wholly worthless.

The defendants swore upon oath that there was no conspiracy or fraud on the part of Robinson, that the gold bearing quartz did come from the mine, but that afterwards they "punched out," that when this sale was made they all thought seriously that the mine was a good mine.

The jury were held together over night, but they were not charged until 9:30 o'clock this morning. Near 12 o'clock the jury returned with a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment against Greenhalgh and the two Jennings. Goff was found by the jury to be not guilty. The amount of money found to have been procured upon false pretenses is $250.00. The indictment failed to specify checks, and therefore the jury, under the instruction of the court, could not consider the checks paid by Mr. Robinson as money.

The jury in this case was charged this morning also.

This jury after being out a couple of hours returned with a verdict of guilty as charged with a recommendation to mercy. The defendant was fined $20.00 without costs.

Time for the passing of sentence upon Magnus Erickson was postponed till December 3, 1894.

Two cases for forgery against Greenhalgh were dismissed. The checks alleged to have been forged by Greenhalgh have been lost, and beside, prospects are that he will be a very much older man than he is now when he would be able to begin serving sentence should he be convicted. He will in all likelihood go to the penitentiary for a few years, for his mine salting expedition.

A number of Eureka gambling cases of long standing were reset for hearing October 9, 1894.

United States vs. A. M. Rhodes, fornication. Case dismissed on motion of prosecuting Attorney Thurman. Conviction cannot be had.

Payson Exchange and Savings bank vs. Frank McHatten et al. Default entered and judgment for $556.20, at attorney's fee $50.00 and costs.

The People vs. Charles E. Dreyer, grand larceny. Forfeiture of bonds set aside.

J. H. Eccles vs. U. P. Coal Co., civil. Case set for October 15, 1894.

The People vs. J. S. Ostler, belounging waters. Case stricken from present setting.

NOTES.

A demurrer to the complaint in the case of Isaac Darton vs. Casier Brothers and Constable E. H. Sparks of Nephi was overruled this morning.

The panel of jurors serving at this term of court is too light altogether. This morning two juries were out at once, one of them consisting of only ten men, and the court had to wait for one to return before it could proceed with important business before it.

Nineteenth Century Club.

The Nineteenth Century club held its regular weekly meeting at the home of Mrs. Wedgwood, vice-president.

During the protracted absence of the president, Miss Kellogg, Mrs. Wedgwood has presided over the sessions of the club.

The club was called to order and the minutes of the last meeting read by Mrs. Reed, after which some business was transacted, then came an interesting talk on the "traditional history of Rome," by Mrs. Reed, followed by Mrs. Rose, who gave the home news of the past week.

After recess roll call was responded to by quotations from Mediamus Monahan, Coray, Reed, Rose, Bartow, Bonham, Wedgwood and Rose. Misses Mary F. French, Jennie French, Alice Kellogg and Josephine E. Kellogg.

Mrs. Don Coray was elected as teacher of parliamentary law. After assigning work for the following week the club adjourned to meet at the usual time.

HEADED THIS WAY.

Sheriff Burns' Murders May Soon be Caught—They Have Not Gone South.

Sheriff Brown at 2 o'clock this afternoon received a telegram from Spring City, worded as follows:

"Look out for parties who killed Sheriff Burns. Were seen going across Anpete Valley at day-break this morning."

"Koffard, aged 22 years; smooth face; blue eyes; dark hair; height, six feet; inclined to be bow legged; very slim, but wide shoulders."

"Mickel, aged 18 years; height, six feet; large blue eyes; red face; light curly hair; neck swollen; is wounded."

"Notify all your officers."

The school teachers of the city and county are busy today packing for shipment the work they propose to exhibit at the fair.

The ladies' democratic club will banquet Delegate Hawkins this evening in the Southworth building.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

By telephone from our Payson correspondent at 3:45 o'clock this p. m. we learn that the republican convention has not yet got down to real business. He says: "All the morning Judge Jones, Charles DeMott and a Mr. Robinson of American Fork were seen rubbing each others' muscles in preparation for the fray and predicting 'blood and thunder' and a troublesome time. They seek aid to down the efforts of certain people who were coming with the avowed intention of packing the convention. They were onto the tactics of the would-be packers, how the signals would be given and by whom. As yet the fur has not begun to fly, but we are looking for it momentarily. Saxey of Provo is permanent chairman. The resolutions are to be prepared, read and adopted before the nominations are to be made. O. E. Allen and George M. Cannon of Salt Lake are to be down to speak this evening."

AT IT AGAIN.

The Enquirer's Idea of a "Clean" Campaign—Another Lie Nailed to the Counter.

In the Fifth there was some organized opposition to Halliday, on account of his long term in office, and to Abe Gash because of its incompetency, but both gentlemen carried the day.

The above appeared in yesterday's Enquirer. To judge how true it is, read the following:

TERRITORY OF UTAH, ss. COUNTY OF UTAH, ss. K. G. Maeser, Leo Bean, M. C. Newell, S. W. Worsley, D. D. Houtz, David C. Owens, F. G. Gates, William Mitchell, John R. Twelves, being first duly sworn, on oath depose and say:

That we have read the foregoing account, as published in the Enquirer, of the democratic primary meeting held in the Fifth ward Provo Sept. 27th, 1894.

That we were present at said meeting and that the statement therein with reference to "organized opposition to Halliday and Gash" is absolutely false and without foundation, as each of the twelve delegates and six alternates were nominated and elected without one word of opposition to any or either of them.

Signed: Myron C. Newell, 1 eo Bean, D. D. Houtz, S. W. Worsley, J. F. Gates, David Openshaw, K. G. Maeser, Wm. Mitchell, John R. Twelves.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 29th day of September, A. D. 1894. V. L. HALLIDAY, County Clerk.

Knights of the Maccabees.

The State Commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two sons, we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter as our experience proves that it cures where all other remedies fail."—Signed F. W. Stevens.
